

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.; moreover, it is total propaganda forced on the public solely as a means to sway the election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Their overtly partisan actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

This abuse of the public, of the airwaves, should result in Sinclair losing its license.

Thank you.
